"It's hot and it's sunny this summer's day,"
deep in the jungle the animals say.
Here comes the lion, the King of this land.
He's big and he's strong, and proudly he stands.

Friends

People who help us
are always there.
We may not know it,
but still they care.

The mouse helps the lion
escape from the net.
Now they are friends
and glad that they met.

Chorus: We have friends who are big.
We have friends who are strong.
We have friends who are small.
Bring them along!

Repeat chorus

When you meet a person,
help them—in the end,
you may find out
that you've got a new friend.

Repeat chorus X2

So everyone here
can see it is true
that we need all our friends,
and that means YOU!

Storytime Readers is a series of storybooks especially designed to provide easy and enjoyable reading practice. They have been carefully graded in three stages and have been written in a way that will help teachers to use them as plays, thus providing an early introduction to drama as a means of learning.

Storytime Readers tell tales of friendship, trust, family loyalty, kindness and love using colourful illustrations, dramatised audio recordings and engaging animations to stimulate the imagination of the pupils and encourage them to explore the wonderful world of the English language through literature, poetry and drama.
