This is where our story starts—
inside a little mill.
The miller asks to see his sons,
because he's really ill.
"I'm dying, sons, there's not much time—
but what I have is yours.
Willam, you're the oldest,
so the mill is yours, of course."

Presents!

When you get a present,
be happy! Say 'thank you!'
Any present, big or small,
is good and that is true!

Chorus: Presents are all special
even if they're small.
We get them out of love—
the nicest gift of all!

Repeat Chorus

Tom thought Puss was silly
but he was wrong, you see.
Now he's rich because of Puss
and as happy as can be!

Storytime Readers is a series of storybooks especially designed to provide easy and enjoyable reading practice. They have been carefully graded into three stages and have been written in a way that will help teachers to use them as plays, thus providing an early introduction to drama as a means of learning.

Storytime Readers tell tales of friendship, trust, family loyalty, kindness and love using colourful illustrations, dramatised audio recordings and engaging animations to stimulate the imagination of the pupils and encourage them to explore the wonderful world of the English language through literature, poetry and drama.
