Not expected to learn

- describe people
- understand texts about family members & friends

1 GETTING STARTED Think about the questions.

- What are you like?
- How old are you?
- What do you like?
- How many people are there in your family? Who are they? How old are they?

2 WORDS TO HELP Read the descriptions. Which of these are like your family or a family you know?

Jack

My sister and I are different. I'm very tall but she's short. I've got short dark hair, but she's got long fair hair. I look like our dad. We both have the same colour hair and eyes.

Amelia

My parents are Jasper and Vicky. My dad's tall and slim. My mum is quite tall but she isn't very slim. My little brother, Jim, is 6 years old.

Lan

My best friend is May. She's very pretty with beautiful eyes and a nice smile. Sally is my cousin. Her mum is my dad's sister. I see her every weekend. We laugh a lot and have great fun together.

3 Match the words in bold in the texts in Ex. 2 to their meanings.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 We do this when something is very funny. _____ | 7 This means a bit, not a lot .
_____ |
| 2 This means they aren't the same.
_____ | 8 We say this when people aren't the same but look very similar.
_____ |
| 3 We say this when something or somebody is very, very good; better than the others. _____ | 9 We say this to talk about our uncle's or aunt's child. _____ |
| 4 We use this word when people are not fat or thin. _____ | 10 This is when a colour of hair isn't dark. _____ |
| 5 This is another word for mum and dad . _____ | 11 This means the same as beautiful or nice . _____ |
| 6 This is when a colour isn't light.
_____ | 12 This means young, small or not big .

Reading

6 Read these two emails. What are they writing about? Who are they writing to?

From: Peter
To: Mark
Subject: About me

Hello Mark!

My name's Peter. I'm nine years old and I've got dark brown hair and green eyes. I like swimming and eating chocolate.

I live with my parents and I've got a little sister, Jane. She is two and has got short fair hair. She's very pretty and looks like my mum. I look like my dad and we both like tennis. I love them all very much.

My best friend is Matt. He's my cousin. I like him because he's very funny and makes me laugh.

Please write and tell me about you.

Bye for now,
Peter

From: Emma
To: Kelly
Subject: About me

Hi Kelly!

I'm Emma. I'm ten and have long black hair and brown eyes. My favourite things are football and eating ice cream.

I live with my mum and dad. They're both very nice and friendly, but they look very different. My mum's very tall and slim. My dad is quite tall but he isn't very slim. I haven't got any brothers or sisters, but I've got a pet cat. Her name's Ginger.

I've got a best friend. Her name's Holly and she's ten too. I like her because she loves football too.

I'd love to hear about you.

Best wishes,
Emma

7 Read the two emails again and decide if these sentences are true or false.

Writing

6 Use these words to describe the children.

Anna / old • hair / green eyes • favourite thing

Anna (10)

Alex / years • hair / brown eyes • likes

Alex (9)

Check your answers with a classmate.

We use CAPITAL LETTERS with names. Max NOT max

7 Write a description of a classmate BUT DO NOT use their name.

Show your partner. Can they guess who he/she is?

- 8 Read the writing task instructions. What are you going to write? Who is it for? What do you need to write about?

Writing task

You have a new pen friend. Write an email to him/her about you, your family and your best friend.

- 9 This is your plan for the email. Put the paragraphs in order. Look at the emails on p. 6 to help you.

Hi + (pen friend's first name)!

A Write some things about your best friend.

B Ask your pen friend to write to you.

C Write some things about your family.

D 1 Write your name, how old you are, the colour of your hair and eyes, your favourite things.

Bye for now,
(your first name)

- 10 Now write your email using the plan in Ex. 9.
- 11 Swap emails with a classmate. Check each other's email. Use the checklist.

Checklist

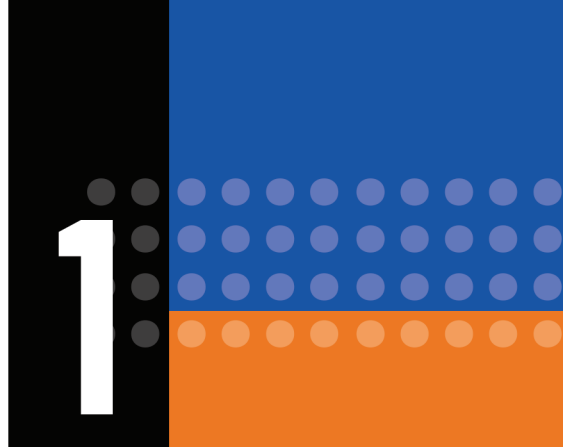

Does the email include all the points the writing task instructions ask for?
Does the email follow the plan in Ex. 9?
Are there any grammar or spelling mistakes?

READING AND WRITING

Skills

The READING & WRITING SKILLS 1-3 series is designed to raise students from A1 to B1 level in their reading and writing in English, combining the very best in modern classroom practice with tried-and-tested language teaching techniques. The 10 units explore different age- and level-appropriate topics through a variety of text types. Each unit comprises two interconnected sections: Reading, to develop reading skills, introduce topic vocabulary and present writing models, and Writing, to develop writing skills and enable the production of different text types. There is a carefully staged progression from controlled to freer language work via stimulating and engaging exercises. Writing Tips provide help on key aspects of grammar, syntax and style. Reflection tasks encourage learners to think about what they have learned.
