Zadanie 1.

Tekst 1.

Woman: Hi, Tom! It's Mum. I'm still at work, so I won't be home till half past seven. Can you make dinner tonight?

Boy: Sure, Mum! I can make pasta with tomato sauce, but we ate that a few days ago. How about chicken and chips?

Woman: There isn't any chicken in the fridge, but there are lots of eggs. We can have eggs with chips instead – I know it's your favourite. We should have some fruit afterwards, though, because that isn't a very healthy dinner!

Tekst 2.

Boy: Hello, Julia! It's Mike. I'm calling about our picnic on Saturday. I was really looking forward to it, but I've just heard on the radio that it's going to rain all day! The weather is going to be nice on Sunday, but I'm going hiking with my family in the mountains then. So, let's meet at the same time on Saturday, but go to the cinema instead. We can eat popcorn instead of picnic food! See you then. Bye!

Tekst 3.

Girl: Hey! Can I talk to you before the lesson starts?

Boy: Sure! What's up?

Girl: Have you done the maths homework yet?

Boy: No, I haven't. I tried yesterday evening, but the questions were too difficult.

Girl: I know! I had the same problem, but Anita thought they were easy! I'm meeting her in the library at lunch so she can explain. Do you want to come too?

Boy: Yes, please! Now, let's get to class. It's really cold out here!

Tekst 4.

Man: Look at your bedroom, Charlotte! There are clothes and books everywhere. And is that your mum's jacket on your desk? She wanted to wear that yesterday and she couldn't find it anywhere! It's no surprise you can't find your phone in here. You could lose something much bigger, like your school bag or even your bike! You aren't going out with your friends until this room is tidy again. And who knows? Tidy everything up and perhaps you'll find what you're looking for.

Tekst 5.

Girl: Hi, Mark!

Boy: Hi, Lisa! Are you OK? We're still going to the concert on Friday night, right?

Girl: Of course we are! I'm not calling about that, though. This is about Saturday night. Are you playing a football match then?

Boy: No, not this weekend. I'm free on Saturday after 3 o'clock.

Girl: Good, because you won't want to miss this! My dad's got tickets for the basketball finals and there's one for you too.

Boy: No way! That's amazing! Thanks so much!

Zadanie 2.

Wypowiedź 1.

Boy: I guess most people my age would say their smartphone is their favourite thing, but not me. Mine is an old copy of The Hobbit. It's my favourite story, but the book is more important to me than that. My granddad gave it to me, you see – it was his favourite book too. He died last year, and every time I look at it, I remember him reading it to me. That's a memory more important than any smartphone.

Wypowiedź 2.

Woman: I'm not really interested in technology, but I can't work without my smartphone. I'm an artist and I sell almost all my paintings online. I post pictures of my art and people like and comment on them. Every few days, someone sends me a message asking to buy one of my paintings. I've got some customers who have bought six or seven! Without social media, I can't really make any money, so I suppose I'll choose my smartphone.

Wypowiedź 3.

Man: People always ask, What would you take if your house was on fire? And for me, that's an easy question to answer. You can buy new furniture and clothes, and I haven't got anything expensive like jewellery or famous paintings. No, the thing I'd take is my photo album. My daughter Elaine put it together for me, and it's got pictures of all my favourite memories from over the years inside.

Wypowiedź 4.

Girl: Well, this probably looks like an ordinary set of books to you, but it isn't. It's a very special one. It's a set of The Lord of the Rings from the 1950s, and the writer J.R.R. Tolkien signed and three books! It's certainly my favourite of all my belongings. It's really important to fans of Tolkien's work, like myself and my parents. Also, if we ever sold it, I could buy hundreds of smartphones!

Zadanie 3.

Woman: Hello! I'm Rachel. I work for a company called Future Business. We love hearing new ideas from young people! Every year, we have a big competition for the best idea. The competition is for students aged 12 to 16 from schools all over Europe. Last year, we asked for ideas about cleaning plastic from the sea. This year, the theme is: "Get Healthy!" We are looking for ideas to help people be healthier. It could be a fitness tracker, a smartphone app, or something new! The winning team will get £10,000 to make their idea real. The ten next-best ideas will be on our website. Who knows? Maybe other companies will help you build them! The Future Business competition is a great way to learn and have fun. Why not join us? Visit our website for more details!

Suggested Answer

Hi Jenny,

How was your weekend? I had an amazing time! I went to St Dominic's Fair. It happens every year in the Old Town in Gdansk for three weeks in the summer. It started in 1260 because Pope Alexander IV organised it, and we still have it today!

During the fair, people close the roads so there aren't any cars. There are lots of stalls and you can buy almost anything! I bought some books and ate some delicious street food. I also listened to some live music, and saw a film at the open-air cinema! My favourite part was singing karaoke with my best friend, Kasia, though. It was so funny! I hope you can visit me next year and we can go together!

Best wishes,

XYZ
