THE Real-Life SUPERHEROES

B

A

Superheroes Anonymous is a group of people in New York, who try to keep their communities safe.

Like all of the famous superheroes in films and comics the real identities of the members of Superheroes Anonymous are a secret. This group of real-life superheroes get together and fight crime on the streets. The group meeting looks like a fancy-dress party. Men and women wear colourful costumes, masks and long black capes. But who are these superheroes?

2

SKILLS TASK Read the text again and mark the sentences T (true) or F (false). Use the underlined words to help you do the task.

- 1 People know the members' real names.
- 2 Superheroes Anonymous is a group of everyday people.
- 3 During the day they look like everyone else.
- 4 They always meet in the evening.
- 5 They only protect people in danger.

Night Owl explains that these people are ordinary, but choose to lead extraordinary double lives, just like Batman, Spider-Man or Superman. Night Owl says he is an accountant in the day. He goes to work in a suit and tie and works 9-5. At night, he puts on his superhero costume and hangs out with his friends on the streets to fight crime. "We don't use our free time to surf the Net, watch TV or read novels," Night Owl says.

Not all of the members of Superheroes Anonymous fight crime. They also help people who need help. They give food and clothing to the homeless, or make sure that elderly people living alone are safe and warm.

Why do they do this? "I live to see the look on people's faces when I help them," explains Night Owl. "I feel like I'm walking on air afterwards." Night Owl deserves to feel proud. These heroes are excellent role models.

Erin's Australian Adventure Blog

12 July

Hi everyone! Well, here I am, in the Australian outback! It's a big change from Sydney, but I'm really enjoying the peace and quiet here, and the scenery is just amazing! It's late now and the sun is slowly setting behind the mountains. I'm still dressed in my work clothes.

For two weeks, I'm what they call a 'Jillaroo', which is a cowgirl in training. The young men training with me are called 'Jackaroos'. There are twenty of us staying on the ranch. Every morning we wake up at sunrise to feed the ranch animals before we have breakfast. After that, we spend most of the morning with the horses. For Jillaroos and Jackaroos, your horse is your best friend, so we learn how to gain their trust. My horse's name is Sheila. We're not close friends yet but we're making progress.

Being a Jillaroo isn't just about working with horses. In the evenings, we go trekking and learn how to set up campsites. Our instructor, Bill, is great. I love it when we gather around the campfire drinking tea.

Well, that's all for now. Wish me luck on the ranch.

Unusual Jobs: Jaguar Sitting

1 Josh Sims is spending a year travelling around South America. Right now he is in Bolivia. For three weeks, he's taking care of a jaguar, the third biggest of the 'big cats' and one of the most dangerous animals on Earth!

2 His day begins very early as one of his responsibilities in the camp is to make breakfast. Then, for the rest of the day, together with his friend, Carl, they're 'sitting' a one-year-old orphan jaguar called Ru. They do whatever Ru wants them to do!

3 Ru is a harmless animal who likes being with people, but they have to be careful with him. Sometimes, Ru gets too excited during play and scratches them with his claws. It's usually nothing serious, but they always have to remember that Ru is a wild animal and not a pet. Still, it's an amazing experience.
